LET'S ALL GO—1961 BOY SCOUT GANG SHOW

'61 Roundup in Action

The 1961 Space Roundup Program is officially in action, announced Sidney Wanzer, III, Scout Commissioner. Units are in the process of making their commitments on the number of boys they will recruit between now and the first of the year.

As new boys are recruited, additional enrollment blanks are turned into the Council Service Center and the Unit Leader automatically receives a Scout Booster Badge to be presented to the boys who recruit other boys into the Scout program.

Reunion Nights

All Packs, Troops and Explorer Units are in the process of setting up their Reunion Nights at which time they invite all new boys and their parents to a watermelon feed or wiener roast, games and a night of fun.

Scout Uniform Day on October 2nd included assembly programs, exhibits in class-rooms and hallways. The climax to Scout Uniform Day will be when each Scout invites his buddy to visit his Scout Meeting, providing an opportunity to open the doors and hearts of people throughout Chicago so that thousands of more boys can join in Scouting.

Pepsi-Cola Sponsors
Scouts to London Trip

Through the courtesy of Pepsi-Cola General Bottlers, Inc., a Cub Scout, Boy Scout and Explorer from the Chicago Council will have the thrill of a lifetime from November 23rd to December 3rd when they will receive free trips to England to see the London Gang Show and live in the homes of English Scouts.

Basis For Selection

The winning individuals will be picked from among the top Gang Show coupon-selling Units on the basis of the following: Gang Show coupon sales record, school academic record, past Scouting advancement record, participation in community service projects and participation in the total Unit program.

Units wishing to participate in the competition must file a special London Trip entry blank at the Council Service Center.

READY TO ROLL

Important Announcement

Scout Coupon Salesmen can get up-to-date information on Gang Show ticket availability daily from October 4th to 16th by tuning in Eddie Hubbard on Radio Station WGN (720 kc.) between 7:15 and 7:30 a.m.

Commenting on the contribution of his company, Pepsi-Cola president E. E. Beisel said, "Pepsi-Cola General Bottlers recognizes the vital job of character-building and citizenship-training that is being done by the Chicago Council of Boy Scouts. We are pleased to assist in the promotion of the principles of free enterprise and good salesmanship."

Will Be Best Show Yet

The curtains will open at 8 P.M., Thursday, October 12th on the fourth annual Chicago Council Boy Scout Gang Show, a great 2½ hour musical-comedy production staged by over 125 Chicago Council Scouts, and those who have been close to the production of this year's show say it will far outshine the previous great shows. The opening performance has been designated the Grand Premiere Performance and will be attended by many name personalities from the midwest.

Thousands of Cubs, Scouts and Explorers are selling exchange coupons throughout the Chicago area at a record pace, and several performances are almost sold out as we go to press.

Exchange Coupons Now

B. W. Dusek, chairman of the show urged all coupon holders to exchange them for reserved seat tickets promptly to avoid disappointment. One dollar tickets are already gone. Coupons may be exchanged for reserved seats at the Council Service Center, 9 West Washington Street.

Record Unit Commissions

With over 80% of the tickets already gone and hundreds of coupons pouring in daily, it is expected that record commissions will be paid to Units for coupon sales. Ted Taylor, chairman of the Attendance Committee, reminded all Units that Tuesday, October 10th is the date by which coupon sales money must be turned in to receive the special 5% bonus. In addition, a 20% commission will be paid on all money settlements made by Tuesday, October 31st. Each Scout who sells ten coupons or more will be given an attractive Gang Show embroidered emblem.

Must File London Trip Entry Blanks

Those Units desiring to enter the competition for the all-expense 10 day trip to London for top coupon salesmen must file an entry blank by October 14th at the Scout Service Center, Taylor emphasized. Only Units which have filed this special entry blank will be considered for the London Trip competition.

The coupon sales effort is being backed by an intensive campaign of publicity in newspapers, radio, television, billboards and with posters. Additional posters and bumper strips are available at the Scout Service Center.

Along the Scouting Trail

By ALDEN G. BARBER

Harry Ploughman, District Commissioner of the Thunderbird District received this note from his former Scoutmaster the other day and has consented to share it with us. Scoutmaster Bergsjö is calling a reunion of the members of Troop 111 and with the invitation is this poignant recollection of happy Scouting days. We are proud to publish it in tribute to all Scout leaders.

I REMEMBER

by Dr. Martin T. Bergsjö

- I remember Scouting—Thirty years ago.
- I remember small boys with ill-fitting uniforms and well fitting smiles.
- I remember squareknots and bowlines, boxed compasses and Scout laws.
- I remember Green Bar Patrol leaders who too, were green.
- I remember them learning that leading a patrol meant more than giving orders.
- I remember day hikes, week-end hikes and two week camps.
- I remember burned fingers and smoke-filled eyes, and good food sacrificed on the altar of second class cooking.
- I remember half raw kabob and doughy bread curled lumpily upon a twisted stick.
- I remember Hunter's Stew conjured up in a water bucket and cold canned beans when all else failed.
- I remember unditched tents and midnight thunderstorms.
- I remember rocks under my back and mosquitoes on my nose.
- I remember welcome sunrises and glorious sunsets.
- I remember glowing campfires and hearty off-key singing.
- I remember Courts of Honor, with proud boys and prouder parents.
- I remember Star Scouts, Life Scouts, and glorious Eagles.

Yes, I remember many things, but most of all I remember the boys, the happy, care-free, wide-eyes, inquisitive boys, learning to be the men God, Our Country, and Scouting could be proud of.

Silkworm cocoons are needed of three species: Antheraea Polyphemus, Hyalophora Cecropia and Samia Cynthia. These cocoons may be found locally on maple, oak, cherry, willow and a few other trees. The scientists will pay up to 25 cents per cocoon, depending on its type. Clear Streams Project

Chicago Council Scouts who have enjoyed camping in the forest preserves of Cook County for over 30 years, and have received extraordinary cooperation from forest preserve officials, are doing a turn about this fall in the form of some conservation projects in the forest preserves which couldn't be done without volunteer help.

During the summer seven Scouts from Lincoln Park District charted log jams and other obstructions on miles of Cook County streams.

Now, a crew of 100 Scouts and 20 Scouters is needed to join in the stream clearance projects being set up by the Council Conservation Committee. All participants must be at least 14 years old and will receive typhoid inoculations. One of the requirements of the Soil and Water Conservation Merit Badge may be satisfied by work on these projects. Detailed information on the clear streams projects may be obtained from Mr. John Clayton, MO 4-2085, or from Mr. Bernard Keller, GR 2-2717.

It is part of the program of the movement — one of the tools we use to build character, citizenship and physical fitness.

Boys' Life is liked by the entire family — by Cubs, Scouts and Explorers. Over 50% of the entire boy membership of the Boy Scouts of America are subscribers.

GANG SHOW SCENERY READIED

Over a thousand men and women and many companies are working behind the scenes to insure the success of the 1961 Gang Show. Typical are these volunteer Scouters who are building scenery at a vacant store at 4928 N. Milwaukee which was loaned for this purpose by the Peerless Federal Savings and Loan Assn. They are (l. to r.) Lowell Peterson, John Schwenk, Walter Brown and William Albrecht.

New Asst. Chief Scout Executive Appointed

The appointment of Robert L. Billington as Assistant Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America has been announced by Joseph A. Brunton, Jr., Chief Scout Executive, in New Brunswick, N.J.

Mr. Billington, presently the Scout Executive of the Greater New York Councils of the Boy Scouts of America, will take up his post on October 16. He was formerly Scout Executive at Minneapolis, Minnesota, Regional Executive of Region 4 and Scout Executive at Oklahoma City and San Angelo, Texas.

Alpha Phi Omega

Many former Scouts and Explorers have entered college this fall and are urged to investigate the advantages of membership in Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity. Chapters exist at most colleges. The fraternity is made up of former Scouts and has as its purpose, service to the nation, community and campus. It is a fine way to maintain a relationship with other Scout oriented people while in college. Men attending the University of Illinois in Chicago may contact Howard Ellegant, 6157 Sheridan, HO 5-3282, for further information. Information about other schools may be obtained at the Scout Service Center.
